Non-Discrimination and Non-Harassment Policy

Indian River State College (College) is committed to maintaining a fair and respectful employment and educational environment. In accordance with federal, state and local equal opportunity laws, Indian River State College prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, sex, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status, or genetic information.

Scope of Policy:
This policy applies to all full-time, part-time, and temporary IRSC employees, including administrators, faculty and staff; employment applicants, students and prospective students; non-employee volunteers who work subject to the control of a College employee; guests, contractors, vendors and/or other affiliates for actions that occur in the course of official College business, events or programs.

Discrimination is an act or communication that interferes with an individual’s or group’s ability to participate fully in College programs, activities, or employment on the basis of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, sex, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status, or genetic information.
Harassment is conduct and/or verbal action which, because of its severity and/or persistence, interferes significantly with an individual's or groups' work or education, or creates an intimidating or hostile academic or work environment. Harassment includes but is not limited to: incitement to or threat of violence; epithets referring to race, color, national origin, ethnicity, sex, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, marital status, veteran status, or genetic information; and/or physical conduct that is unwelcome, hostile or intimidating. College policy also recognizes conduct and/or verbal communication that are hostile, intimidating, violent, threatening, or ‘bullying’ as harassment.

Sexual Harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, non-verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when:
1. Submission to such conduct is made either implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or status in an educational course, program or activity;
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or educational decisions affecting such individuals; or
3. Such conduct has the purpose or effect:
   a. Of interfering with the individual’s work or education performance;
   b. Of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working and/or learning environment; or
   c. Of interfering with or limiting one’s ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity.

Prompt Reporting

Preventing harassment is the responsibility of the entire College. Accordingly, Indian River State College strongly encourages prompt reporting of all experienced or observed incidents of discrimination and harassment, including sexual assault, sexual misconduct and sexual harassment. Prompt reporting of such incidents through the process outlined in AP 3.13 makes investigation of the incident more effective and enhances the ability of the College to take action on a complaint.
Disciplinary Actions
Any employee, student or affiliate of the College who is found to have engaged in actions that violate this policy will be subject to disciplinary action(s) up to and including termination, suspension, and/or expulsion, within the provisions of applicable Board Policies. To discourage discrimination and harassment, the College will provide comprehensive educational programs to assure awareness within the College to attempt to prevent such conduct in the future.

Confidentiality
The privacy of all parties involved in a complaint of discrimination, harassment, sexual assault, sexual misconduct and other acts of violence must be respected, except insofar as it interferes with the College’s obligation to fully investigate allegations of discrimination and harassment. While confidentiality will be maintained to the extent possible while still meeting the requirements of conducting an appropriate investigation and reporting illegal acts to the appropriate authorities, the College cannot guarantee confidentiality.

Retaliation
No member of the College shall retaliate, intimidate, threaten, coerce, or otherwise discriminate against any individual who has filed a complaint, participated in an investigation, or openly opposed any unlawful or questionable practice. Such retaliation will subject the person who retaliates to disciplinary action.

Notice of Title IX Coordinator
The College Equity Officer serves as the Title IX Coordinator for the College, and is responsible for coordinating and ensuring that appropriate notices, training, reporting and complaint resolution procedures are in place to prevent or address issues that fall under this policy. Contact information for the Title IX Coordinator can be found on the IRSC website, and employee, student, faculty and adjunct faculty handbooks.
