Application Process
Application materials must be submitted directly to Human Resources. A cover letter, IRSC Employment Application, signed position description, three letters of recommendation, and photocopies of transcripts (if required by the position description) are required in order to be considered for a position. When applying for more than one position, a separate cover letter for each position and signed job description are required. Applicants only need to complete one IRSC employment application.

- IRSC Employment Application
  The employment application may also be located on the IRSC website. Applicants must submit an IRSC employment application to be considered an applicant for any IRSC position vacancy.

- Cover Letter
  Applicants cover letter must address how they feel they are qualified for the specific position and must address qualifications/knowledge and skill requirements as indicated on the position description.

- Position Description
  Available position descriptions may be viewed on the IRSC website. The position description must be reviewed, signed, and returned with the application packet.

- Resume
  The resume cannot be accepted in lieu of the employment application.

- Transcripts
  If the position description requires a degree, photocopies of transcripts are required to apply. If selected as the final candidate for the position, the applicant will be asked to have official transcripts sent. To be considered “official”, these transcripts must be received by IRSC directly from the institution(s) attended. Transcripts provided by the applicant in a sealed envelope will not be considered official.

- Three Letters of Recommendation
  Letters of Recommendation are optional. If provided, professional letters are preferred with personal letters acceptable. The applicant may provide these with their application or request that the recommender mail them directly to the Office of Human Resources/Employment at the Main Campus, Fort Pierce.

Interview Process
Individuals selected for an interview will be contacted by telephone, letter or e-mail to arrange for an interview. After the interviewing process is completed and an individual has been selected for the position, all applicants will be notified in writing that a selection has been made. Applications will remain current for a period of four years in the event another suitable position becomes available.

Background Checks
Employment may be contingent and probationary pending fingerprint and background clearances, which will include criminal arrests, convictions, and may include consumer credit, motor vehicle driving, and other reports. A processing fee of $15 will be charged at the time of fingerprinting.

* An application for employment is incomplete without all of the required documents indicated above as being received in Human Resources. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Unsolicited applications will not be accepted.

Please return all required materials to the Office of Human Resources/Employment, Main Campus, Fort Pierce. If you have questions concerning the employment process, please contact Human Resources at (772)-462-7280.
