

INDIAN RIVER STATE COLLEGE
Learning Outcomes for Baccalaureate Programs

Bachelor of Applied Science

Learning Outcomes for Organizational Management Concentration

- Develop knowledge, skills, attitudes, and values necessary for success in management and leadership positions in a variety of business, governmental education, and nonprofit settings.
- Demonstrate advanced professional and educational capabilities using appropriate interpersonal, written communication and critical thinking skills that are required for successful performance and progress in an organization.
- Acquire knowledge through the application of principles of sound research designs to critical evaluation of academic literature related to organizational management.
- Exhibit leadership with the ability to be a change agent within an organization and the business community.
- Integrate appropriate technology into the leadership and management and decision making process.
- Demonstrate personal and professional ethical responsibility in all managerial and organizational decision making.

Learning Outcomes for Public Safety Administration Concentration

- Develop the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and values necessary for success in management and leadership positions in a variety of agencies, governmental, educational, and non-profit settings.
- Demonstrate advanced professional and educational capabilities using appropriate interpersonal, written communication and critical thinking skills that are required for successful performance and progress in an agency or organization.
- Acquire knowledge through the application of principles of sound research designs to critical evaluation of scientific literature related to Public Safety Administration.
- Exhibit leadership with the ability to be a change agent within an organization and the Public Safety community.
- Integrate appropriate technology into the leadership and management and decision making process.
- Demonstrate personal and professional ethical responsibility in all decision making.

Learning Outcomes for Health Care Management Concentration

- Develop the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and values necessary for positions of responsibility in a variety of health care settings.
- Demonstrate advanced professional and educational capabilities using appropriate interpersonal, written communication and critical thinking skills required for successful performance and progress in the health care profession.
- Apply principles of research to evaluate scientific literature related to health care as a foundation for lifelong learning.
- Exhibit leadership and act as a change agent in the ever-evolving aspects of health care.
- Integrate appropriate technology into the leadership and management and decision making process.
- Demonstrate personal and professional ethical responsibility in all managerial and organizational decision making.

Bachelor of Science in Education

Learning Outcomes for Bachelor of Science Degree in Education

- Demonstrate competence in the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices at the Pre-Professional level.
- Demonstrate reading competencies 1-5 for ESE majors and 1-2 for Math/Science majors of the State Board Approved Reading Endorsement.
- Diagnose students' difficulties with the reading and computational process.
- Apply appropriate measures to improve students' reading and computational performance.
- Apply appropriate classroom management strategies.
- Incorporate technology into classroom instruction.
- Integrate Sunshine State Standards into instructional plans.
- Apply effective ESOL responsive instructional strategies.
- Demonstrate competencies and skills for Teacher Certification as measured by the Florida Teacher Certification Examinations (FTCE).

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Learning Outcomes for Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing

- Develop the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and values necessary for nursing positions of responsibility in a variety of health care settings.
- Demonstrate advanced professional and educational capabilities using appropriate interpersonal, written communication, and critical thinking skills required for successful performance and progress in the health care profession.
- Apply principles of research to evaluate scientific literature related to nursing and health care as a foundation for lifelong learning.
- Exhibit leadership and act as a change agent in the ever-evolving aspects of the nursing profession.
- Integrate appropriate technology into the decision making processes of nurses.
- Demonstrate personal and professional ethical responsibilities in all managerial and organizational decisions.