This must include a diagnosis and a valid and reasonable assessment of the academic accommodations needed, based on the disability.

- Documentation for a specific learning disability
  - A psychological evaluation (completed within the past 5 years), signed by a licensed psychologist or licensed school psychologist, including a diagnosis and assessment of needed academic accommodations
  - OR
  - Copies of an original/comprehensive psychological evaluation, most current Individual Education Plan (IEP) indicating needed accommodations, most current three-year reevaluation if available, and Eligibility & Assignment Staffing form

Student Rights

The rights of students with disabilities which pertain to post-secondary education are provided under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990. These laws prohibit discrimination by institutions to "otherwise qualified" students with disabilities. This enables students to have an equal opportunity to benefit from the education offered by those institutions.

In accordance with provisions of Sections 1007.264 and 1007.265 Florida Statutes and Florida State Board of Education Rule 6A-10.040 and 6A-10.041, individuals with disabilities shall be eligible for reasonable substitutions, waivers or exemption of basic skill exit requirements for requirements for admission to the College, admission into a program of study, graduation and upper division requirements, where documentation can be provided that the person’s failure to meet any requirement is related to the disability and where failure to meet any requirement does not constitute a fundamental alteration in the nature of the program.

AND

- Completion of IRSC/Student Disability Services forms or Student Disability Renewal of Services forms for returning students
- When requested, a verification letter from a state agency (e.g. Division of Vocational Rehabilitation or Division of Blind Services), indicating whether or not the student is a client and whether or not the agency will be responsible for providing the student with services and/or equipment
- Submit official high school or GED® transcript, previous college transcripts and college placement scores (ACT, SAT or P.E.R.T.) - as appropriate.
