Why Choose Criminal Justice?

If you are ready for a challenging and exciting career protecting and serving the public, criminal justice may be for you.

You could serve the public as a law enforcement officer, corrections officer or specialized state or federal agent.

You will be a respected professional in a career field that will always be needed. Employment opportunities in criminal justice are projected to increase by about 10 percent by 2018.

What Will I Learn?

You will learn the organization, management and operation of the criminal justice system. In law enforcement, you will learn the role of the police in social control and understand the legal and philosophical issues involved. In corrections, you will learn to perform duties for the care, custody and control of individuals in prison, jail or another correctional facility.

IRSC offers a Bachelor of Science Degree in Public Administration with concentrations in Emergency Planning and Management and in Public Policy and Leadership, as well as a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice.

The following listings of courses are suggested samples and subject to change. You should meet with an IRSC advisor to develop your program plan.
