This summer, our staff will be conducting the IRSC Aqua Sports Camp. This camp will be held at the Anne Wilder Aquatic Complex on the IRSC Main Campus in Fort Pierce. Specific instruction will be provided in the areas of swimming, diving, aquatic games and dry-land activities. IRSC staff is safety certified. The experience of our instructors, combined with the various activities will result in a fun, rewarding summer experience.

DAILY SCHEDULE:

- 8:45 a.m.  Drop off at pool
- 9:00 a.m. - noon  Rotate through stations of swimming, diving, aquatic games and dry-land activities.

10:20 - 10:40  Break & Snack - campers should bring their own snacks.

Every Friday is Olympic Day, where campers compete in diving or swimming. Individual awards are given to campers. Friday is also Fun Day, where the campers will play aquatic games.

Camp will run for three sessions:
- June 13 - 17
- June 20 - 24
- June 27 - July 1

FEES:  Cost is $89.00/week. To participate in the IRSC Aqua Sports Camp, each camper MUST BE comfortable in water depths that exceed his/her height and be able to swim.
